a Democratic victory can now take in their chickens.

The Republican general committee of the Eleventh Assembly District of New York, have passed a resolution concluding as follows: "That he will like Benedict Arnold, go down to his grave 'unwept and unhonored.'" It does not add "unsung," for poor Winans will never see the day when his baseness will not be sung. He is a rail. ans will never see the day when his baseness will not be sung. He is a railroad man, and the best disposition he can make of himself is to "tend" one will, for them and their political lives.

"For some of the other offices the candidates are numerous and their claims yet to be weighed, but we believe our people would cheerfully support such a man as Hon. Isaac Welsh, of Belmont County, for State Treasurer. Mr. Welsh has the utmost confidence of his own people; while he is known to many of our citizens here as a man of pure morals, of strict integrity and of varied business experience.
